

James Kisicki

James Kisicki received his MFA in acting from Wayne State University. He has been a professional actor for the last 36 years. He is a member of Actor's Equity, AFTRA and SAG. He has appeared on stage at the Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park, The Muse Theater in Miami, Florida, and The Hilberry Theater in Detroit. In Cleveland he has appeared at the Dobama, The Ensemble, the Halle, the Cleveland Stage Company, and the Cleveland Play House where he was a member of the resident acting company for nine years beginning in 1977.

The "Detroit Free Press" theater critic, Larry Devine, created the "James Kisicki" award in 1975 and it has been given annually to the "Most Versatile Actor" of the year in the greater Detroit area. It is still being awarded.

Kisicki has done both local and national commercials on radio and TV. He does narrations both on and off camera for industrial and corporate video programs. He has narrated programs for the "Discovery" and "Travel" channels.

Kisicki has appeared in eleven major motion pictures, the most memorable being "The Shawshank Redemption" and "Milk Money". He also appeared in four made for TV movies including "The Christmas Spirit" with Nicolette Sheridan of "Desperate Housewives". If you wish more detailed information and samples of his work feel free to go to his website at www.kisicki.com. You also might enjoy going to www.IMDb.com and type in his name.