Once known as a 'hangout', (lil' Capone's) this museum now houses fire trucks and a plethora of firefighting equipment ranging from axes to knives to sledgehammers. Perhaps it's the artifacts in this museum that make the spirits come alive, or a coffin in the Chapel that was once used at the Ohio State Reformatory.

Renaissance Theatre

419-295-5002

A 1928 movie palace is the premier showcase for entertainment but also known for ghostly encounters. Footsteps have been heard coming from the grand staircase, dark hallways and balcony. Disembodied voices have been heard in the projection booth and whispering in the catacomb-like rooms under the stage and lobby where a 1929 murder took place. Seen on A&E's My Ghost Story/2011.

Whether you're an expert in the field of paranormal activity, just starting your journey of serious exploration, or simply an avid amateur, spend a haunted night in Mansfield to capture your own evidence!
