BEING IN THE MIDDLE OF IT ALL?

HISTORY?

Richland County is steeped in fascinating American and Ohio history and RichHistoryAlliance.org makes it easy to discover it all. Malabar Farm State Park was the home of author and screenwriter Louis Bromfield and where Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall tied the knot.

PLAYING OUTDOORS?

Tee off at Deer Ridge Golf Club where a mind-blowing 500-yard tee-to-green drop earned the club the label "one of golf's best values." Zipline through the tree tops at Tree Frog Canopy Tours. Downtowns

Richland County is made up of charming communities, each with its own story and small town finds that are uniquely theirs. Find a new favorite restaurant, shop, hangout or take a stroll to unwind. Wineries, antiques, festivals and adventures await!

Bellville (est. 1808)

Crisscrossed by Clear Fork Creek and the Richland B&O Trail, Bellville is a perfect example of the classic Norman Rockwell small town, with its famous Bandstand Gazebo perched on the square. Start with coffee at Brumby's, then, shop in the antique stores, enjoy lunch at Wishmaker House Bed & Breakfast and finish with a sweet treat from the Dairy Belle on your way home.

Butler (est. 1848)

The Village of Butler is nestled in the picturesque hills of the Mohican and Clearfork Valley. The Richland B&O Trail trailhead sits at Hitchman's Park, making it easy to walk or ride into downtown. Eat at Whiffletree Restaurant; and don't forget dessert at Five-Points Drive-In. Downtown is just a short drive from the yearly Prairie Peddler Festival and stick around for the Butler Apple Fest "in the heart of Applesed country."

Lexington (est. 1812)

Home to the Blueberry Festival, Lexington comes alive during the Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course summer race season. Downtown at Y-Not Cycling, you can rent bikes and ride the Richland B&O Trail. Go karts, games and more family-fun awaits at The Infield, with Bucks Bar and Grill right next door. Enjoy an evening of live music at The Happy Grape Wine Bar & Bistro and Laxton Hollow Brewing Works.

Lucas (est. 1836)

As a gateway to Mohican and Amish Country, start at the Lucas Community Center for brochures on regional attractions or have lunch at the Open Door Café. The Old Summer House Bed & Breakfast is a short drive from Malabar Farm State Park.

Mansfield (est. 1808)

Enjoy a leisurely stroll down Main Street which connects Central Park and the Historic Carrousel District, home to the Richland Carrousel Park and Little Buckeye Children's Museum. During the day, the downtown offers boutique shops, some of best local eateries, ice cream parlor, coffee house and First Friday Shop Hops. Come back down after a performance at the Renaissance Theatre, Mansfield Playhouse or summer concert on The Brickyard stage. Enjoy a craft beer at The Phoenix Brewing Co. or glass of wine at Cypress Hill Winery.

Olivesburg (est. 1836)

Perched in the northeast corner of Richland County, Olivesburg claims just 813 residents, an old sign advertises Olivesburg Dynamite; a nod to the town's history as an explosives manufacturer. Still home to Olivesburg General Store, the old-time retailer has been serving hand-dipped ice cream, made-to-order sandwiches, and more since 1840 to the tiny berg's many visitors.

Ontario (est. 1834)

Ontario is the restaurant and retail hub of Richland County with the Richland Mall, Cinemark Movie Theater, national retail stores, and restaurant chains mixed in with local food establishments. Marshall Park, with its bandshell and recreation, offers a community gathering space that's home to live music and an annual all-American Fourth of July celebration.

Plymouth (est. 1818)

The Village of Plymouth was originally surveyed in 1807. Border's Market is in the same location as the first cabin in Plymouth. Look up the history of the village at the Museum and Heritage Center. The annual Silver King Festival honors Plymouth and Silver King Tractors, designed and manufactured there from 1930 to 1954, with many tractors on display, live entertainment and a quilt show.

Shelby (est. 1834)

Shelby is home of the annual Shelby Bicycle Days, a nod to the famous Shelby Bicycle Manufacturing Company. The city is also recognized as the birthplace of the seamless tube industry. In downtown, savor a glass of wine at The Vault Wine Bar, enjoy the classic diner feel of Paul's Drive-In, or hunt for a treasure at Glen's Surplus. Splash into Seltzer Park to cool down on a hot day, hit the "little" link at Roselawn Miniature Golf, or take a walk on a reservoir trail.

Shiloh (est. 1874)

Shiloh is a rural village where you can shop for bulk foods, fresh produce, baked goods, and specialty foods at the Mennonite-run Planktown Country Market. Find even more at Planktown Hardware, from tools and craft items, to kitchen gadgets and spa kits. Come for a bath bomb or craft class! Be sure and stay in the summer for their Annual Ox Roast!

WISHMAKER HOUSE

Must eat

MALABAR FARM RESTAURANT

Built in 1820, the Malabar Farm Restaurant serves upscale French, European and American cuisine using fresh, local meat and produce and hand-made pasta. Extensive beer and wine list.

WISHMAKER HOUSE B&B AND WINERY

Featuring 11 award-winning wines, Wishmaker serves seasonal cuisine using local ingredients in a restored historic home with modern touches. Save room for the mile-high cheesecake.

SKYWAY EAST

Upscale fine dining in a romantic atmosphere featuring linen tablecloths, intimate lighting, fresh roses and a 100-bottle wine cellar. Each evening, 85 entrees are offered on the ever-changing menus.

OAK PARK TAVERN & RESTAURANT

Located on the original Lincoln Highway, the rustic Oak Park Tavern & Restaurant is a 1940s-style steakhouse specializing in steaks, seafood and Lake Erie Yellow Perch.

ATHENS GREEK RESTAURANT

Authentic Greek cuisine uses age-old original family recipes; hot, fresh pita, homemade pastries and the BEST gyro anywhere.

UNCLE JOHN'S PLACE

One of Mansfield's favorites! Best described as a 'low-key haunt' dishing up creatively topped burgers, mouth-watering steaks, Reuben sandwiches, cheesesteaks and a great beer menu.

ABC KITCHEN & BAR

A New American restaurant featuring a progressive, inventive menu and eclectic decor. ABC serves favorites like meatloaf with delightful, upscale twists alongside trendier chef-driven, showstopper-sized dishes with big flavors.

Mansfield's special blend of sophistication and country charm comes through in its dining offerings as well. From craft beer and amazing home-cooked mashed potatoes, gravy and baked goods, to fine wine and an elegant steak dinner with a linen tablecloth, you will find whatever you're craving here. And, it's all made even more delicious thanks to our warm and welcoming spirit and our proximity to a bounty of Ohio farms.
